Officers: Ken Finch (Strategic Director (Democracy, Regulation and Support) - Conwy County Borough Council and Richard Jarvis (Solicitor) - Conwy County Borough Council

1. APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE

None.

2. DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST: CODE OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT CONDUCT

Councillor Bill Cowie declared a personal interest in Minute 3 – Appointment of Independent Co-opted Members as he knew one of the candidates on a professional level.

Mr. Richard Jarvis (Solicitor) also declared a personal interest in Minute 3 – Appointment of Independent Co-opted Members as he knew one of the candidates on a professional level.

As the interests were not considered prejudicial both Councillor Cowie and Mr. Jarvis remained in the meeting.

Mr. Ken Finch, the Strategic Director for Conwy County Borough Council also informed the Interview Panel that whilst he had been the interim Chief Executive of the North Wales Police Authority, he was advising the Panel purely as a representative of Conwy County Borough Council, who was the Host Authority for the Police and Crime Panel.

3. APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT CO-OPTED MEMBERS

The North Wales Police and Crime Panel - Interview Panel had met to interview four candidates for the positions of Independent Co-opted Members on the North Wales Police and Crime Panel.

The Panel considered that Mrs. Pat Astbury and Mr. Timothy Rhodes to be the most suitable candidates.

RESOLVED-

That it be recommended to the North Wales Police and Crime Panel that Mrs. Pat Astbury and Mr. Timothy Rhodes be appointed as the Independent Co-opted Members on the North Wales Police and Crime Panel.
