In advance of the meeting I have already technically been granted planning permission by the fact that my application was determined under delegated powers and an approved (signed and dated) decision notice received. This would warrant an explanation to the committee prior to the application being considered, as would the fact that this application is technically a resubmission of a previous application (bar an amendment) which already benefits from an approval of planning permission. I intend to make a personal and prejudicial interest declaration, leave the meeting, and not vote but request to speak on the above matters beforehand..
Details of any Position of responsibility/control held on Council (e.g. Chairman/Vice-Chairman)	Independent Alliance Group Leader Member of the County Council Planning Committee
